

Arkansas Reserve Component

BRAC 2005 Recommendation:

Transform Reserve Component facilities in the State of Arkansas into multi-functional installations that will enhance unit readiness, increase training opportunities, and generate operational efficiencies. These transformed facilities will provide the capability to conduct Soldier Readiness Processing and Home Station Mobilization, reduce the number of substandard/undersized Reserve Component facilities, enhance Anti-Terror/Force-Protection, promote effective recruiting and retention, and enhance the Homeland Security and Homeland Defense capabilities of the Army Reserve and the Army National Guard.

Gains:

- Build 8 multi-component Armed Forces Reserve Centers (AFRC) and a Joint Maintenance Facility. New AFRCs will have the capability to accommodate Arkansas National Guard units located below if the State of Arkansas decides to relocate them.
 1. AFRC Arkadelphia
 2. AFRC Camden
 3. AFRC El Dorado
 4. AFRC Fort Chaffee
 5. AFRC Hot Springs
 6. AFRC Jonesboro
 7. AFRC Northwest Arkansas
 8. AFRC Pine Bluff
 9. Joint Maintenance Facility, Fort Chaffee
- Realign Camp Pike Reserve Complex by disestablishing the 90th RRC and activating a Sustainment Brigade

Losses:

- Close 7 Army Reserve Centers and 1 maintenance facility
 1. USARC Arkadelphia (move to AFRC Arkadelphia if Army able to acquire suitable land for construction)
 2. USARC Camden (move to AFRC Camden, converting ARARNG Readiness Center, Camden)
 3. USARC El Dorado (move to new AFRC El Dorado if Army able to acquire suitable land for construction)
 4. USARC Hot Springs (move to new AFRC Hot Springs if Army able to acquire suitable land for construction)
 5. USARC Jonesboro (move to new AFRC Jonesboro if Army able to acquire suitable land for construction)
 6. USARC Pond, Fayetteville (move to new AFRC Northwest Arkansas if Army able to acquire suitable land for construction)
 7. USARC Pine Bluff (move to new AFRC Pine Bluff)

8. Army Reserve Equipment Concentration Site (ECS), Barling – relocate units.
- Realign 2 Army Reserve Centers
 1. Army Reserve Center, Darby (341st Engr Company)
 2. Army Reserve Center, Fort Chaffee (75th Division (Exercise))
